The Gospel Advocate is the oldest living periodical published in the interest of the church of Christ, having just completed its fifty-second year. For forty-five years it has been practically under the same editorial management, and during all these years it has stood firm for pure apostolic Christianity in opposition to all departures from the clearly defined work and worship of the church. It has passed through fiery trials, has seen "hard times," has suffered from lack of support which it should have had; and yet, through all these years, it has never faltered nor turned aside from the Lord's way to please men.

In editorial policy it stands for individual consecration, against ecclesiastic organizations, as the scriptural and best method of doing missionary work. It recognizes no organization but the church of Christ as a scriptural medium of converting the world and developing the Christian character.

It opposes all human creeds and ecclesiastic councils, and pleads for the right of each individual to study the Scriptures for himself, and formulate his own faith, without dictation or hindrance from churchly dignitaries. It opposes all clerical assumption of official authority in the church, and stands for the scriptural doctrine that each Christian has an office to fill, a work to perform—that all are kings and priests unto God.

It stoutly advocates the doctrine of missions, and argues unceasingly that every Christian is a divinely commissioned missionary and every church a scripturally organized missionary society. The mission of every Christian and the design of every church is to preach the gospel to all the world.

It believes in, and stoutly advocates, congregational singing, as opposed to select choirs and instrumental performances, as the best and most soul-stirring church music. Let all the people sing. Provide a book for everybody in the house, and let all make a joyful noise unto the Lord.

It has been enlarged to thirty-two pages. Subscription price, one year, $1.50; six months, 75 cents (payable in advance). Sample copies mailed free to any address.

Communications and remittances should be addressed to

FIRM FOUNDATION.

Established 1864.

The Firm Foundation though younger than several papers among the disciples, has a circulation exceeded by few, if any, loyal papers. It has always stood in the front rank in the plea for the restoration of primitive Christianity. It contends for the church of God as the only divine religious institution, and thus the only one that merits divine sanction as a means of converting the world. It has always urged that men must hear what God says and do what He requires, with a correct motive, in order to expect the forgiveness of sins. Many interesting discussions on current issues relating to the Christian system, have been conducted through its columns. Its policy is to state clearly and fully the position of opponents, or, preferably, to permit them to do so in their own language, then to test such position by the word of God. It is the settled conviction of its managers that no doctrine should be tolerated that is at variance with the plain teaching of the Bible, and that it is folly to endeavor to extenuate the condition of those who advocate false systems of religion, or who may render but a partial obedience to the gospel of Christ. It is premised that the law of God which converts the soul is perfect, that any mutilation, alteration, addition, subtraction, perversion, substitution or modification whatever, renders it imperfect and thus cancels its power to save; that, on this account, man's obedience should be without partiality or reservation. Courteous criticisms are always welcomed, and critics are treated kindly and fairly. A position that will not stand the test of criticism should be abandoned. Besides its six editors, a large force of other capable writers contribute regularly to its columns. The regular subscription price of the paper is one dollar per year, paid in advance. The Firm Foundation consists of eight large pages and is issued weekly. It contains much interesting news each week from the evangelistic field. Communications and remittances should be addressed to Firm Foundation Publishing Company, 118, 119, 120 East 9th Street, Austin, Texas.
